- Appellation: D.O.Ca. Rioja
- Vintage: 2023
- Grape varieties: Tempranillo, Garnacha, Graciano
- Alcohol: 14% vol.
- Aging: 12 months in French and American oak barrels
- Serving temperature: Recommended between 16–18 °C

■ WINEMAKING

A careful selection of Tempranillo, Garnacha, and Graciano grapes from the coolest areas of Sonsierra and Alto Nájera. Destemmed without crushing, followed by fermentation in concrete tanks to preserve fruit purity. Aged for 12 months in both French and American oak barrels.

■ TASTING NOTES

Appearance: Ruby red color with a purple rim.

Nose: Intense aromas of ripe black fruit, sweet spices, and subtle notes of vanilla and toast.

Palate: Full-bodied and well-balanced, with crisp acidity, volume, and freshness.

“A bold and vibrant Crianza : where freshness meets balance, capturing the true essence of Rioja’s terroir.”

David González - Winemaker
